Let's Start!

Can you take some time off?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- When do you have time away from school or work?
- What do you do with your time off?
- Do you want more time off?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel and transportation.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can talk about plans, arrangements and current actions.

Let's Explore!

Peter is coming to San Francisco!

* Peter "is coming" means Peter has plans to go to San Francisco.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear Vanessa,

I'm writing to tell you that I'm coming to San Francisco to visit you! I decided that it's just too long to wait until summer vacation to see you! I told my boss that I'm taking two weeks off. She said that it was OK with her. I'm arriving on December 15th, so we'll get ready for Christmas together!

Don't worry about meeting me at the airport. I spoke to my cousin, Wendy, and she's picking me up. I know it's hard for you to get there without a car.

I think we're taking off at 9 in the morning and landing around 11:00 San Francisco time. I'm really looking forward to seeing where you live and meeting your friends!

See you soon!

Thinking of you,
Peter

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

Verb	Simple Past Tense
to decide	decided
to copy	copied
to protect	protected
to lose	lost
to have	had to say	said
to speak	spoke
to think	thought

Learning Points

Simple Present vs. Present Continuous Tenses

You use the Simple Present tense to talk about:

- a routine action or specific action that happens regularly
- a general truth
- to give personal information

You can use expressions of frequency like every day or always with the Present Simple.

You form the Present Continuous with the verb to be + verb-ing.

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about:

- a current event or action happening around now
- events that are going to happen soon (future plans)

You can use expressions like right now or later with the Present Continuous.

Present Tense	Present Continuous Tense
I know it's hard for you to get there without a car.	I'm writing to tell you that I'm coming to San Francisco.
Don't worry about meeting me at the airport.	I'm arriving on December 15th.
