Let's Start!

Let's explore your town or city!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite place in your town or city? Why?
- Do many people go to this place? Why or why or not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places in a city.
- I can talk about things, actions and events in the future.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa, Peter and John video chat about their adventures.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hi John!

Peter: Hi there!

John: Hi guys! How is San Francisco?

Peter: It's great. I love it here. Yesterday, we visited the pier. We checked out some boutiques and saw cool restaurants. You have a great view of the bay from the end of Pier 39. It's a hidden gem.

John: Nice.

Vanessa: We walked around the grounds of Golden Gate Park in the afternoon. We stopped at a conservatory of flowers. There were lots of Christmas poinsettias.

Peter: Then, we went into a museum of space and technology. Did you know that in the future, technology will be even more powerful than it is today? People will have private robots and they will do almost everything from home!

Vanessa: People will even keep their address books in their phones!

John: People do that now.

Vanessa: Peter doesn't.

Peter: Gee thanks, Vanessa.

Learning Points

The Simple Future Tense

You use the Simple Future to talk about actions in the future.

The auxiliary will goes before the verb. The short form is 'll.

You use the Simple Future when you talk about intentions, make offers or make predictions.

Examples:

- In the future, technology will be even more powerful than it is today.
- People will have private robots.
- They will do almost everything from home.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

| Verb     | Simple Past Tense |
|----------|-------------------|
| to visit | visited           |
| to walk  | walked            |
| to stop  | stopped           |
| to lose  | lost              |
| to be    | was, were         |
| to have  | had               |
| to speak | spoke             |
| to think | thought           |

Examples:

- Yesterday, we visited Pier 39.
- There were Christmas carolers everywhere.
- We walked around the grounds of Golden Gate Park in the afternoon.
