Let's Start!

Do you want to go by taxi or by bus?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What kind of transportation do you use?
- What kind do you prefer? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel and transportation.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can ask questions using words like what, when, how.

Let's Explore!

When did Peter arrive in San Francisco? Where is he?

* You use "did" to ask questions in the Simple Past tense. The verb arrive is in the base form.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hello, this is Vanessa. I'm sorry I missed your call. Please leave a message after the beep and I'll get back to you pronto! Cheerio!

Peter: Hi Vanessa! I guess you have a lot of questions. Where am I? How did I get here? What did I do? When did I arrive? It's a long story. Wendy went to the wrong terminal at the airport. I didn't have your address because I left my address book at home.

I took the wrong bus and got off at Fisherman's Wharf by mistake. It started to rain, and then I tripped over some seafood and bumped into an angry fishmonger. I landed in a pile of prawns. A kind taxi driver offered me a ride, but he went the wrong way on a one-way street and ...

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

Verb	Simple Past Tense
to decide	decided
to start	started
to take	took
to leave	left
to have	had to say	said
